Dear Jerry,
Well you've finally reached 12th grade anow you can graduate
Did you ever think you wuld make it? I kind of hate to see all the seniors leave this year, I've sure had a lot of fun with you
all. Keep plugging along
And I'll see you this

The spaceman, Links! Even to you who are not science-fiction fans, we hope to open the door to imaginative wanderings. In the 1954 Links, by means of our ship, the Links, and its passengers and crew, we will fly into outer space to our destination, graduation.

On this imaginary journey we find the school administrators are pilots who direct and steer our way, our teachers as the crew who keep the ship moving, and we, the students, are passengers.

Now—put on your space helmets and prepare to blast off!

Dear Jerry,
Well it's finally over. I'm sure you're glad. Wonderful times, wonderful memories, but not the summer of the century. The best of luck to the world's greatest entrepreneur (in Biology maybe). You're been the clown of our problem class. Be good.

DR. STEVEN N. WATKINS
Superintendent of Schools

DR. RUDOLPH L. FREDSTROM
Associate Superintendent of Schools

Administrators-Responsible for Schooling

One of the primary functions of the Board of Education and the Superintendent of Schools is to oversee the development of new buildings and to provide better facilities for the entire public school system.

Within the past year additions and one completely new building were built. In the near future there are plans for the construction of the Southeast Junior-Senior High School, the Millard Lefler Junior High School and an Activities Building. This need for expansion has been caused by the addition of over 3,000 pupils in the past three years and the expectancy of approximately the same number in the next four years.

In addition to this the School Board and the Superintendent continue to formulate and refine the policies of the Lincoln school system and provide for the total educational program.

Showing the script used in the newscast tryouts to Sandra Finkle is William Bogar, principal.

Principals-Leaders in Schooling

In charge of keeping all the various divisions of the school running smoothly and efficiently is William Bogar, principal. His red shirt and black tie on game days are a good example of his interest in all the functions of the school. His name was added to Lincoln High's growing list of "VIP'S" this year when he was elected president of the Nebraska Association of School Administrators.

Always ready to help students with either a scholastic problem or a personal one are Miss Dorcas Weatherby and Otto Hackman.

Girls will be in contact with Miss Weatherby, girls adviser and assistant principal, and boys will see Mr. Hackman, boys adviser and assistant principal.

All three administrators help to make school life easier and more likeable to all 1700 students.

Checking over cumulative records is but one of the many duties of O. W. Hackman, boys supervisor and assistant principal.

Girls who are in need of any sort of advice find helpful counsel from Miss Dorcas Weatherby, girls adviser and assistant principal.

Diagramming, reading, and writing are all a part of the English courses taught by MRS. MARY-LOUISE ALEXANDER, shown here advising Barbara Beechner.

Keeping up with the latest events in Germany is MISS VALERIA BONNELL, German instructor.

Teachers are just like other people

In addition to teaching shorthand and typing, MISS EULALIE BRATCHER is the head of the assembly committee.

Students studying inventories and salesmanship find that FRED BREMER'S class room closely resembles a typical store.

JOHN BRUCE, history teacher and Debate Team coach, is probably musing over one of the many humorous incidents which are common in his classes.

No, it is not a judge with the scales of justice, but MISS EDNA BRYAN, who teaches mathematics and physics.

Registration is a trying time as GUILFORD BURNHAM, junior problems class teacher, Pat Hedglin and Elizabeth Carpender well know.

Visual aids and English make up the two subjects under the direction of ALVA CAVETT.

If there is some doubt about zig-zag lines, oblong circles or wide open spaces the man to consult is DONALD BYORTH, art teacher.

The point is, according to FORREST CHRISTIANSON, who teaches mathematics, that the study of algebra is not any harder than it looks.

Checking up on an important historical event in one of her many text books is MRS. IRMA COOMBS, history teacher.

Pressing problems are the property of MISS WANDA CRAWMER, sophomore problems teacher.

Rome, A World Power, is one of the subjects discussed in MISS MARIE CROSS' Latin classes.

They have likes and dislikes, pets and husbands or

If you are planning a trip to Mexico, be sure and consult MISS TERESINA DANESE, Spanish teacher, who has made several trips there.

Typing, one of the most necessary abilities in this day and age, is taught by MISS DOROTHY DUMPERT, who also teaches bookkeeping and shorthand.

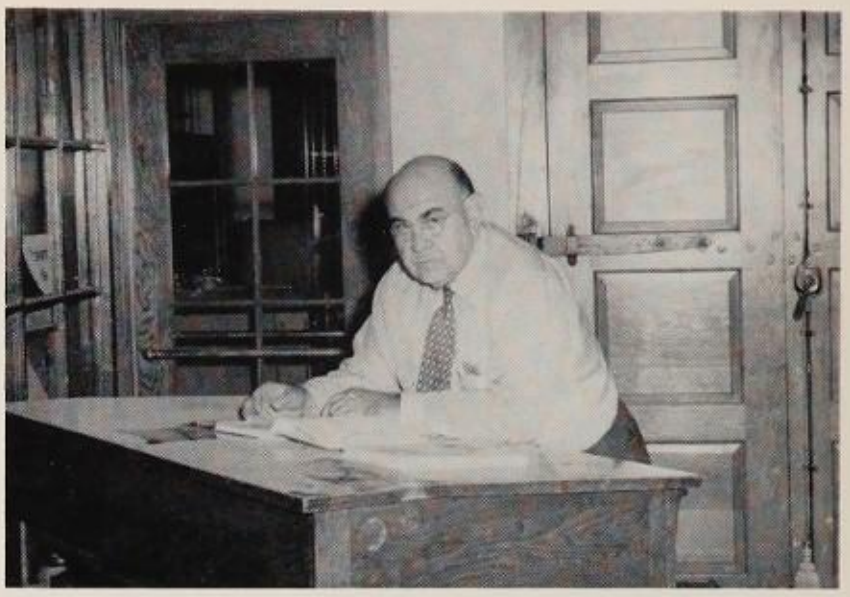
Both inexperienced drivers and mathematicians take their problems to MRS. LAVINA DVORAK, driver education and mathematics teacher.

boy-friends and girl-friends.

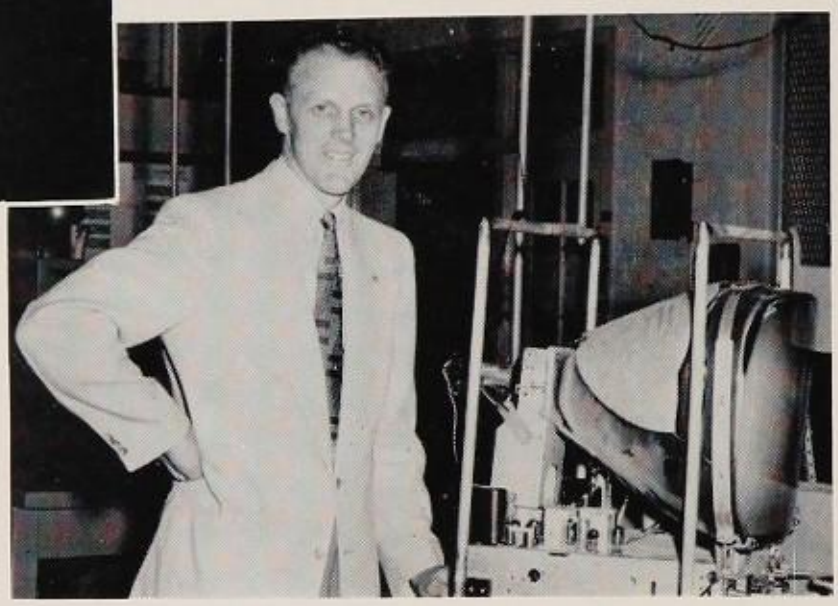
Bridges and other geometrical designs are all part of taking mathematics, taught by MISS EDITH ELLIS.

Patterns, whether for dresses or a way of life, are discussed in the classes of MISS ETHEL ETMUND, home economics and health education teacher.

No, it's not a music class, it's just MISS BELLE FARMAN, head of the English Department, and some Shakespearean records.



CLARENCE EVANS, wood work and carpentry teacher, shows that books are helpful in teaching his students.



Pointing out some of the finer details of television is CHESTER GAUSMAN, radio and electricity instructor.

Music, mostly vocal, serves as the subject for the classes taught by MISS DORTHEA GORE, who also sponsors Clef Club.

Showing her students how a microscope, a very important detail used in the study of biology, works, is MISS LUCY GEIGER, who teaches the subject.

Driver education and history are taught by DARRELL GRELL, one of the new teachers this year.

The French flag and magazines written in French help MISS ELIZABETH GRONE to show the way things are done in France.

Newspapers telling about current events are a handy implement used in the modern problems classes taught by BUFORD GROSSCUP.

Whether you've been late to class or just plain sick, everyone has been in touch with MISS MARGUERITE GUNDERMANN, attendance director, at some time during the school year.

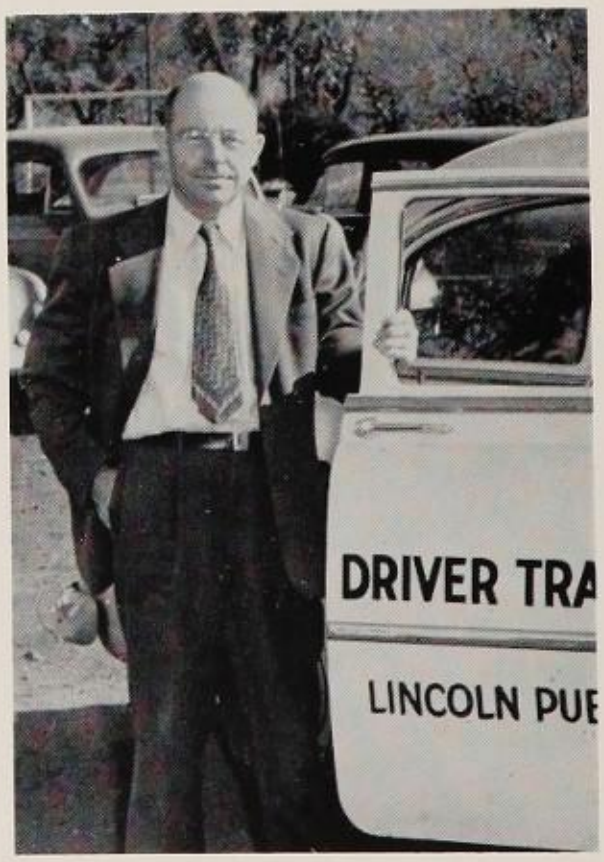
Looking over one of his printing presses to see if everything is ready to go is MORTON GUNDERSEN, printing instructor.

New this year to Lincoln High, but not new to the subject of general business, is MISS HELEN HAGENSICK.

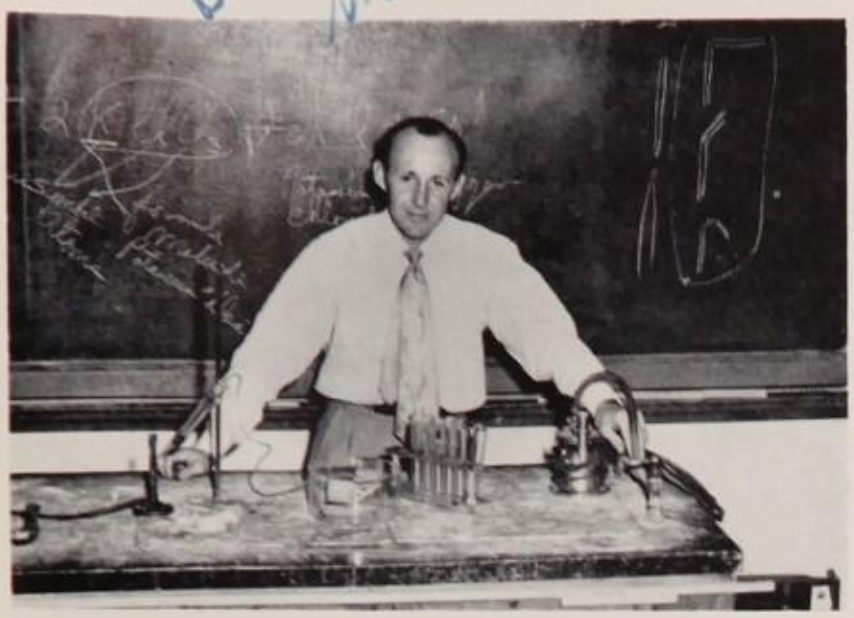
Pleased that her students have satisfactorily completed their examination is MISS RUTH HALL, mathematics teacher and faculty director of the Student Council.

From 8 a.m. they face the never-ending struggle of student versus teacher.

Preparing the next day's assignment is MISS BETTY HECKMAN, former graduate of Lincoln High who returned this year to teach in the Business Department.

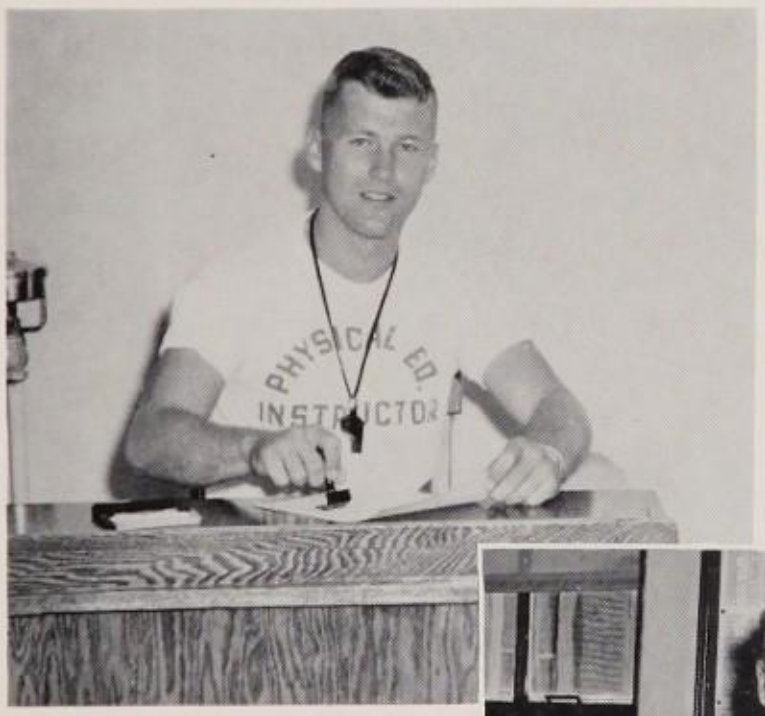


"Off to the races" or some such expression could be heard as O. L. HEDRICK climbs into the driver training car in preparation for another class.



WALTER HUNTER, chemistry teacher, looks over his equipment as he prepares the next assignment for his "future scientists of America."

Do you have paranoia or paresis? If you want to know just what these strange words mean, see MISS FLORENCE JENKINS, history and psychology teacher who also presided over the Nebraska State Educational Association.



BILL JENSEN, head baseball coach, who also teaches students how to drive carefully, needs his whistle, whichever class he is teaching.

Explaining the accomplishments of Napoleon to Dorothy Glade is MISS WILHELMINA JOHNSON, history teacher.

Teaching students to work with the rule instead of against it well describes the job of ARVID JOHNSON, drafting instructor.

Magazines help MISS MILDRED KEMP, home economics teacher, prove to Sharon Wood that if Christian Dior says skirts are shorter, skirts are!

Taking time from his files to smile broadly for the Links camera is HARRY KUKLIN, senior problems adviser and swimming coach.

the privacy of their own homes.

Actual examples always help students to visualize problems, especially in the mathematics classes of MISS GRACE McMAHON.

Looking over the newest addition to the Links photography equipment is Kay Deppen, photography editor, and CARL MANTHEY, Links photography adviser and science teacher.

MISS IRENE MARTIN, English teacher, looks as if she almost enjoys checking papers, a necessary duty of any teacher.

"Ping pong, anyone?" MISS HELEN JO MILLER, physical education teacher, shows Gisela Budde, German exchange student, the art of playing table tennis.

Fresh from a stimulating year in England as an exchange teacher, MISS ESTHER MONTGOMERY has many interesting experiences to tell her English classes.

Social studies and football, two entirely different subjects, are taught by BILL PFIEFF, head football coach.

Both books and globes are very necessary for teaching history, as MRS. RUTH PINNEY certainly realizes.

Trying to decide on the right selection for the Senior Choir goes along with being its director, as HUGH RANGELER knows.

Giving helpful and needed advice to Clair Morgan and Carol Thompson is only part of the job of WINDLE REEL, sophomore problems teacher.

In their spare time they watch the same television programs.

Ready to answer any questions about the history of the world or America is MISS CARRIE ROBERTS, head of the Social Science Department.

Looking up for a moment from planning her classes is MRS. VIRGINIA ROBERTS, sophomore class problems teacher and sponsor of Aqualinks.

One of the main cogs in the Science Department is MISS HELENE SCHEMEL, who gives her students a thorough background in biology and physiology.

Always ready to help her students with any difficult passage in American literature is MISS FREDA SCHMELING, English teacher.

They like to sleep late in the morning

Enjoyment plus is found in the classes of MRS. RUTH DODGE SCHWARZ, who teaches history, modern problems and supervises County Day.

A telephone conversation is always enjoyable for ED SCHWARTZKOPF, industrial crafts teacher and assistant football coach.

It looks as if HAROLD SCOTT enjoys teaching history as well as coaching the Lincoln High track and reserve basketball teams.

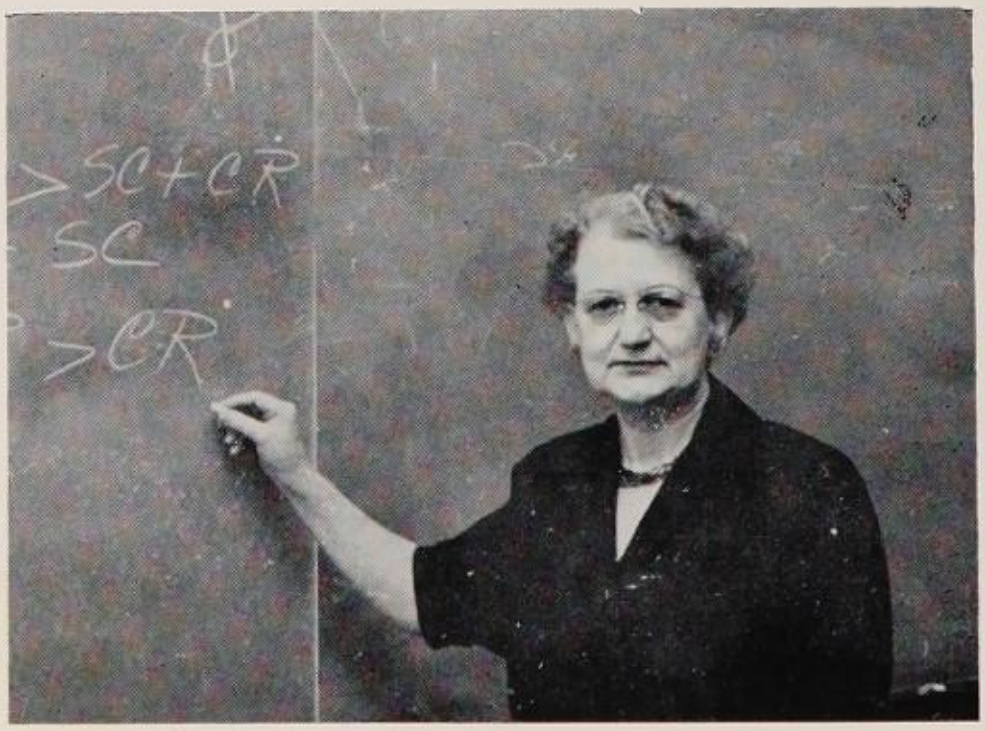
If you want to know what causes that certain someone to have a roving eye, ask MRS. GLADYS TEMPLE during one of her biology classes.

Pausing briefly while trying to straighten out the mass of registrations is MRS. ALICE UPDEGRAFT, junior problems teacher.

Checking money, receipts and forms is the job of MISS MILDRED WAIDE, publications business adviser and math teacher, who is shown here with Mary Welsh and Lee Anderson, business managers of the Advocate and Links.

LYLE WELCH, Orchestra and Band director, lends a helping hand to one of his many musicians, Hal Varney.

LYLE WEYAND, head basketball coach and mathematics teacher, pauses a minute to cooperate with the Links photographer.



Equations and deductions are all a part of the mathematics classes taught by MISS JOSEPHINE WIBLE, head of the Mathematics Department.

Machines and tools are the chief implements to be found in the machine shop, presided over by CLAUDE WINGROVE.

Guiding students to good eating is only one phase of the Science Courses taught by J. D. YOUNG, head of the Science Department.

They go to the same movies and have many of the same interests as students.

With a plentiful supply of band-aids and aspirin, MRS. ALICE YOUNGSCAP, school nurse, is well supplied with the tools of her trade.

A welcome addition to the music department this year is JAMES YOWELL, who helps teach Sophomore and Junior Glee besides Senior Choir.

With pencil in hand, MRS. MARIE PERRIN, record clerk, helps problems teachers work their way through the maze of registration.

Typing cards for the many new books in the library is only part of the job of MRS. MABEL SWARD, library clerk.

Still, regardless of what students say, teachers are really

Keeping records, statistics and files in order is all a part of the duties of MRS. MARTHA STROHM, record clerk.

Ready and willing to lend a helping hand to dismayed students is MRS. ALICE HIBBERT, office clerk, who also works with countless records and forms.

Looking well-pleased with the results of the call she is making is MRS. ENID KAVAN, secretary to the principal.

Always hard at work trying to keep Lincoln High School neat and clean are the custodians.

Always ready with a pleasant smile and plenty of good food is the cafeteria staff.

Top Honorees

Each year Lincoln High School honors the highest ranking member of the Senior Class by presenting to him a gold key, the symbol of top scholarship. The winner of this award for the graduating class of 1954 is Walter Carlson, (top picture) who had a 1.1 grade average for his 179.5 hours.

Delores Wertz (second from top) was elected this year's G.A.A. Cup Girl for her participation in girls' athletics and loyal service, along with her scholarship, citizenship, and popularity.

Each year since the school year of 1912-1913, Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Dobbins have given to the senior boy in Lincoln High who is outstanding in citizenship, scholarship, and athletics an award in honor of their son, Harry Sidney Dobbins, who died at the age of 18 in 1911, a victim of a typhoid epidemic. The recipient of this year's award is Arthur Weaver (third from top) whose scholastic average was 1.42. Arthur had 62 superior ratings and has lettered in tennis and Reserve and Varsity basketball.

Out of the 504 seniors in Lincoln High School about 100 took the examination this year for what is no doubt the most avid competition in the state, the University of Nebraska Regents' Scholarship. The senior boy from this school who won it for 1954 is Frank Shelledy, (bottom picture), who had a scholastic average of 1.62 for his 161.5 hours in high school.

Alternates for the Regents' Scholarship are Kenneth Barnard, Harry Dingman, Barry Hammond, Barbara Packard, Darrina Turner, and Charles Whitney.

Six future career women received an early start in their chosen professions by membership in the Altrusa Career Conference, sponsored by the Lincoln Chapter of the Altrusa Club.

ALTRUSA CAREER CONFERENCE: Sitting: JoAnne Butz, Charlotte Sheldon. Standing: Sharon Brehm, Marilyn Ewerth, Shirley Hunkins, Shirley Hornby.

The Lincoln chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in 1927. Since that date 831 boys and 1,652 girls, or a total of 2,483 members have been elected to this chapter.

This organization stands for four cardinal objectives—scholarship, leadership, character, and service. The emblem is the keystone and flaming torch.

Members of the National Honor Society are selected on the basis of their cumulative records in Lincoln High School. Only pupils who have been resident at least one year and were in the upper fourth of their class in scholarship with no average below three, may be considered for membership. In addition to scholarship, their rank in citizenship, leadership, and service is averaged in the final score. Membership is limited to 15 per cent of the class.

The students were presented to the school at an assembly in the spring.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY: Row 1: Ruchman, Packard, Salter, Waechter, Stefanisin, Unterseher, secretary-treasurer; Turner, Miille, Newton, Varga, Welsh. Row 2: Parks, Sherman, Lowe, McMullen, Paul, Lohrberg, Tubach, Reed, Sellens, J. Andrews, Boerrigter, Deppen, Hermann, Weaver, Epp.

Examining the senior robes are Harry Kuklin and Miss Betty Pauly, senior counselors.

Seniors Look Back On Past Activities

"Graduation"—a wonderful and at the same time sad occasion has at last come into prominence for tired seniors. As they look back on three years of "readin', 'ritin', and 'rithmetic," coupled with fun and friendships, they will never forget the magic years in Lincoln High School.

Sophs Look Ahead

Looking, surprisedly enough, like scared rabbits, over 600 sophomores entered Lincoln High this year. After many trials and tribulations, they came to know where classrooms were, that seniors were not ogres, and best of all, how to open their lockers.

With the help of their counselors, upper classmen and the wonderful friends they made, all will look forward to their junior year.

Busily planning another activity for the Student Council are Elaine Unterseher, Ben Gadd, Dick Cavett, Art Weaver, Monroe Usher, Suzie Swingle, Jim Junge, and Jeanine Garner.

Student Council Promotes Activities

One of the most important organizations in Lincoln High School is the Student Council, whose main purpose is to promote worthwhile projects for the students, the school, and the community.

The Student Council consists of twenty-four members; six senior boys, six senior girls, four junior boys, and four junior girls, all elected in the spring of the preceding year. Elected this fall were two sophomore boys and two sophomore girls.

This year the activities of the Student Council were many and varied. They sold football and basketball schedule pencils, and sponsored both the Newcomers Party and the Football Banquet. The members also served as guides for parents of new students at Open House. They revised the Extra Curricular Activities point system, first introduced in Lincoln High three years ago. They also organized dancing classes again this year.

New activities introduced to the council

Again this year many members of the Student Council attended the State Student Council Convention at Hastings. The convention is made up of members of student councils from all over the state and its purpose is to introduce new projects to the schools.

One of the Student Council's projects was the hanging of Christmas wreaths. Shown hanging them are Dallas Hunt, Bill Danek, and Karen Rauch.

"Gone Fishin' " was the title of this senior girls' act.

L. H. S. Goes 'Under The Sea'

Everything from beauteous mermaids and a bashful octupus to hidden treasures was found "Under The Sea" at the thirtieth annual performance of Joy Night.

The Boys Glee opened the show as sailors who had come "to introduce music into the schools of the fish" while a group of junior girls hunted for a treasure hidden under Dock C.

A sea captain was the subject of a satire called "This Is Your Strife," based on a television program, and it added much to the hilarity of the program.

A "Sea Shell" makes a beautiful background for a solo tap dance.

Joy Night tie ups take a bow at the end of the thirtieth annual performance.

A Latvian folk dance gave an international flavor to this year's Joy Night.

"The Bashful Octupus" sang to a beauteous "Minnie the Mermaid" while the audience also found "King Neptune's Court" where King Neptune finally discovers a new dance that suits his royal whim.

"20,000 Legs Under the Sea" was presented by the faculty. Their moral was "You'll Never Find a Pearl in an Oyster Shell."

The story of how the lobsters got red was told by a group of senior Bebopsters and fog rolled across the stage as a group of girls tap danced. This was one of the most interesting effects of the show.

A deep sea diver appeared to present "Sunken Treasures" and finish up an evening of hilarity for all.

Senior boys got together and practiced to make their ballet one of the funniest acts.

The Salmon's dance was found at "King Neptune's Court" dance contest.

Dry ice made fog roll across the stage in "Sea Capades."

Debate Requires Time, Effort

As in many other activities there is no room for the lazy in Debate. Much time and effort is required to prepare a case and get it ready for a tournament.

Of course, the primary activity of this group concerns preparing for and entering debate tournaments.

Other things that interest the members are panel discussions, extemporaneous speaking, dramatic readings, poetry readings, radio newscasting, humorous readings, prepared oratory, and interpretive oratory.

But regardless of the hard work involved, trophies are always nice to bring home.

Ready to leave for another debate tournament are Alice Ward, Sara Jones, Carl Bodensteiner, Frank Hemphill, and Darrina Turner.

'Reps' Help Govern School

Two comparatively new organizations are the Problems Representatives and Problems Alternates. In their second year of operation, these organizations again filled their positions as another division of the democratic voices in L. H. S.

True to their names the Representatives represented their guidance classes and the Alternates alternated.

From each of the many sophomore, junior and senior problems classes, a representative was selected. They also selected an alternate to fill his place if the "Rep" was absent or otherwise unable to perform his duties.

These students helped the guidance teachers and were in charge of any fund-raising campaigns or drives conducted in the classes.

In spite of all the weighty problems and plans discussed in their meetings, both Representatives and Alternates agree that their organizations are very necessary parts of the school.

Board Perfects

Last fall when six strange, bewildered seniors opened the door of room 319 for the first time, not one realized the time, effort and fun that could be had in bringing 1200 yearbooks, 152 pages each, to the student body.

From the first month, when they chose the theme and cover and began taking teachers' pictures, to the spring months when they rushed to catch up on all the endless details that hadn't seemed important in the beginning, the four girls and two boys worked endless hours to perfect their work.

With the help of writers and an artist, the Board members created, among the confusion of copy, pictures, page plans and endless checking of details, a yearbook that they hope will be long and proudly remembered.

Nevertheless, when this, the finished product, wins the approval of the student body, the ones with the happiest smiles will be the 1954 Links Board.

Advocates Reveal Latest Happenings

A newspaper is one of the most important organs of communication in this day and age, even in high school.

Work on a school newspaper helps students develop poise, gain invaluable experience in newspaper work, and last but not least, learn fundamentals that can be used in every other walk of life.

Many students read the Advocate without ever taking into consideration the work which is behind it. Although a regular period is devoted to producing this publication, every member of the Advocate staff puts in after-school time during the semester.

The staff gathers news, writes it, reads copy, plans pages, writes headlines, meets deadlines, reads proofs, and generally tries to perfect this bi-weekly newspaper under the supervision of Robert Munger.

Although they receive little glory, the Advocate staff continues to present the latest news in school activities, clubs, and sports to the student body.

One of the biggest events of the school year for the fledgling journalists is the Nebraska High School Press Association Convention held each fall on the University of Nebraska campus. The students attend panel discussions and participate in many types of contests.

Looking back over old Advocates brings back memories to Jeanette Turner, Jane Hoover, Sally Wilson, Teresa Stepanek, and Carol Goff.

The Advocate is still interesting to Sherman Nefsky, Suzie Swingle, Karen Hermanson, June Stefanisin, and Alice Knudson, even if they already know what's in it.

Gayly flashing fans, the "Mikado" chorus, members of the Aeolian Choir, practiced the finale.

'Mikado' Features Romance

Love and romance was the theme of this year's opera, "The Mikado," by Gilbert and Sullivan.

From the first, when Nanki-Poo, the son of the Mikado, escapes marriage with Katisha, an elderly lady, to the finale, "The Mikado" left the audience enthralled.

The story begins when Nanki-Poo disguises himself as a wandering minstrel to escape the court. During his wanderings, he meets and falls in love with Yum-Yum, who is to be married to her guardian, Ko-Ko, the Lord High Executioner.

More complications arise when Nanki-Poo, in despair, decides to kill himself. Before he can carry out this plan, he meets Ko-Ko, who is in need of someone to behead. Nanki-Poo offers to die if he can marry Yum-Yum first.

Practicing for the "Mikado" took up the after-school time of Katisha (Phyllis Eitner), Mikado (Harry Grasmick, Koko (Bud Heald), Pitti-sing (Sally Laase), Pish-tush (Steve Winchester), Peep-bo (Jane Johnson), and Pooh-bah (Tim Taber).

Bowing to the Mikado (Dick Hammel) is Pitti-sing (Gloria McKim) as Yum-yum (Kay Lawson) watches.

Rehearsing their lines is enjoyable for Yum-yum (Pat Shonerd) and Nanki-poo (Bill Dietemeyer).

Yum-Yum refuses this because then she would have to be buried alive.

Ko-Ko, who is a sentimentalist, can not bear to kill Nanki-Poo, so he makes out an affidavit saying he has been beheaded and tells the young couple to flee.

The Mikado and Katisha arrive on the scene and read of the execution of Nanki-Poo. Since Ko-Ko has killed the Heir Apparent, and there is a law which says that whoever kills the Heir Apparent must also be killed, he must die. Ko-Ko interrupts Nanki-Poo's honeymoon and tells him that he must reveal himself to the Mikado, his father. Nanki-Poo says that if Ko-Ko will marry Katisha, he will come back. Ko-Ko consents to woo Katisha, and she accepts him.

In the end, Nanki-Poo and Yum-Yum appear before the Mikado and are forgiven.

Katisha (Carolyn Lawson) browbeats Koko (Mike Sommers) in another practice scene.

The "three little girls from school" Yum-yum (Pat Shonerd), Peep-bo (Martha Danielson) and Pitti-sing (Sally Laase), give their song a little practice.

The Gibbs family of Grovers Corners was made up of George (Tom Keene), Rebecca (Sondra Sherman), Mrs. Gibbs (Nancy Salter), and Dr. Gibbs (Ben Gadd).

The Webb family in "Our Town" boasted four members, Mr. Webb (Doug Thorpe), Mrs. Webb (Pat Patterson), Emily (Bobbie Teas), and Wally (Bruce Berggren).

'Our Town' - - New And Different

A new type of presentation was added to Lincoln High's repertoire by means of the Senior Play, "Our Town."

This play was given without fancy scenery and the audience was expected to use imagination.

"Our Town" was Grovers Corners, New Hampshire, and was the home of the Gibbs and Webb families. The daily life of these two families, the courtship and eventual marriage of George Gibbs and Emily Webb, and the death of Emily, make up the plot of this play.

After her death Emily wants to return to life and relive their past. She does so and soon realizes how futile it all is and that happiness can only be found in the future.

Taking another curtain call are the stage manager (Dick Cavett), Emily Webb (Bobbie Teas), and George Gibbs (Tom Keene).

Others in the cast were (from left) Frank Shelledy, Gloria Temple, Bob Hans, John Reed, Diann Hahn, Barry Hammel, Larry Krokstrom, Margot DuTeau, Sherman Nefsky, Paul Schorr, and John Sackett.

Receiving final instructions from Otis Skinner (Joe Hill) on their trip to Europe are Emily (Maryanna Gould) and his daughter Cornelia (Bette Osterlund).

Emily (Maryanna Gould) is being consoled by Cornelia (Bette Osterlund), Leo (Eugene Carter), and Dick (Mike Levy) as she finds out she has not killed a man while the purser (Bruce Pauley) and the steward (Leland Kovarik) look on.

Measles, Bedbugs Highlight Play

"Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," this year's junior play, brought the adventures to life of two teen-age girls on their first ocean voyage.

The play, by Cornelia Otis Skinner, was the account of a trip she and a friend, Emily Kimbrough, took to Paris when they were 18.

Excitement, from pushing a man overboard to cases of measles (and bedbugs) highlighted the play.

Romance entered the picture when Emily picked up a stray pair of shoes she found lying in the corridor and in this way met Leo and Dick, two young doctors, also on their first trip abroad.

Reaching Paris, the girls have trouble with hot water and just before the boys arrive Cornelia finds bedbugs.

Finally their trip is over and they tearfully say good bye to a wonderful stay in "Paree."

Dramatic instruction by Monsieur De La Croix (Leroy Meyer) is an important part of Cornelia's (Bette Osterlund) stay in Paris.

Whatever it was, it must have been shocking news the Admiral (John Leonard) brought to Cornelia (Bette Osterlund) as Harriet (Clara Grossman) and Winifred (Dottie Biendorf) watch.

"Halt, or I'll shoot," might well be the dialogue in this scene played by Maria (Anne Pickett), Cricket (Bobbie Teas), the "Rich One" (Dick Cavett), and Adelita (Sandra Dennis).

Two of the main characters in "Soldadera" were Concha (Pat Patterson) and Adelita (Sandra Dennis).

Mummers Present Two Plays

The life of our southern neighbors is shown in "Soldadera," one of this year's Mummers plays.

A group of Mexican women are assigned to guard an ammunition dump and a young wounded Federalist is captured. He wins the heart of Adelita but the "Rich One" is not sincerely in love. He uses her for information and relays it to his forces with a mirror.

The leader of the women discovers this but before she can stop it, he escapes. She prepares to throw a hand grenade at the Federalists. Adelita seizes it and rushes to them as the grenade goes off, killing her and all of the Federalists.

Mystery was brought to the stage by "The Opening of A Door."

When Martin Frazer kills his brother-in-law he does not realize that his ghost will avenge him, appearing at midnight every night. Martin is frightened and will not unlock the door. His mother secretly unlocks it and a few minutes later a shriek is heard. Martin has "fallen" out the window and is dead.

Downstairs, the door closes softly.

Is it a mouse or a dead body Lotlies (Karen Thompson) sees? It could be the latter judging from the expressions of Martin Frazer (Tom Keene) and Esther Frazer (Marilyn Waechter).

Is it another body or just the silent "closing of a door" that frightens Lotlies (Karen Thompson) as (from left) Owen Bennett (Mike Levy), Ruth Parrish (Doris Hudson), Esther Frazer (Marilyn Waechter), and Mrs. Parrish (Alice Knudson) look on?

Organizations Serve L. H. S.

Scotch tape and splice and everything nice, that's what movie operators are made of. This is an adequate description of the young men who run the movie projections all over the school and whose main ambition is to get through a movie without breaking the film.

The Usherettes are a vital part of school programs. Their duties are to pass out programs and seat the audience.

The confusion that would arise if this organization were not in existence makes its value inestimable.

Another organization that helps make every L. H. S. stage production a success is the Doormen. This group is composed of sophomore, junior and senior boys, whose job is to take tickets and keep a lonely vigil on closed corridors while inside the auditorium the "show goes on."

Senior Choir Doubled

The pleasure of listening to the Senior Choir has been doubled this year by dividing it into two separate choirs, the Aeolian and the Apollo.

Both choirs appeared at the Nebraska State Teachers Convention in October, to the delight of the teachers from all over the state. These two senior groups joined with other musical organizations to sing at the beautiful and inspirational Christmas and Easter assemblies. They also appeared at the Christmas Vesper Concert.

The choirs cast their musical spell in public as well, with performances for the enjoyment of various local organizations and junior high schools in the city.

Glee, Octets Appear Often

The Boys Glee, a group of 75 sophomore and junior boys who like to sing, sang often for assemblies and concerts.

Some highlights of the year were the Thanksgiving, Spring, and annual Christmas assemblies. The boys also sang for the Christmas Vespers and another Vesper Concert in January.

Traveling around to give concerts is always fun, and this group gave their talents to Irving Junior High School, the Garden Club of Lincoln and Joy Night.

Harmony was the keynote for the Boys Octet this year as in every other year.

These eight boys and their able accompanist participated in assemblies and Joy Night besides numerous public appearances.

Another high spot in the musical activities is provided by the Girls Octet.

Participation in Joy Night and school and civic affairs, besides TV appearances, took up the time of these eight girls and accompanist.

Junior Glee Twice As Good

Music, music, and more music was featured in the enlarged Junior Girls Glee, directed by Miss Dorthea Gore.

For the first time in the history of the school, the Junior Glee, like the Senior Choir, was divided into two groups, which combined at various times to give concerts.

The 120 members dressed in maroon skirts and pink blouses and appeared at a Vesper Concert, the annual Christmas Assembly, and presented an assembly of their own. They also took part in various programs at other Lincoln schools.

Sophomore Band Added

"Something new has been added." This seems to be the style for the Lincoln High Band this year. Anticipating a large number of sophomores trying out for band, a new class was scheduled, organizing a sophomore band also to be under the direction of Lyle Welch.

With their own uniforms and twirlers, the new band made its first appearance at the Grand Island football game.

Adding to the half-time spectacles, the senior band put on skits and anything from tennis players to old widows could be seen during these hilarious performances.

The band appeared at home football and basketball games, traveled to one out-of-town game and gave a Vesper Concert.

The orchestra was also under the leadership of Mr. Welch. A few of their highlights included playing for Joy Night, plays, the Opera, and their concert in the spring.

Y-Teens - - Active in Service

Y-Teens is an organization that is active in school, out of school, and in community service. It is connected with the Y.W.C.A.

At the beginning of the year a meeting to introduce new Lincoln High students to Y-Teens was held. It was also to interest any other students who were not already members in Y-Teens. The program of this meeting showed the varied functions and activities of the club.

The Y-Teen club has a cabinet of four officers and the chairman of ten committees who carry out the projects of the club.

The programs of the girls varied from fashion talks to planning treats. They also sponsor the "Candy Castle" on play nights, opera time, and at Joy Night.

One of the main events of the Y-Teen social season is the Snowball Formal which is held in the winter. Another is the Mother-Daughter Banquet.

During the summer four Y-Teen delegates from Lincoln join girls selected from other parts of Nebraska, at Camp Brewster, Omaha, for the Y-Teen Conference. They exchange helpful suggestions and ideas that can be put into effect in individual clubs next year.

An important part of their organization is the Scrapbook Committee consisting of La Vonna Brunner, Bette Osterlund, and Betty Parks.

Hard at work on planning another Y-Teens meeting are Elaine Unterseher, Ardith Hughes, Nancy Salter, Carol Lohrberg, and Patsy Giesick.

Clubs Provide Development

To provide for further musical expression is the purpose of Orpheons.

Any junior or senior who is talented in music can belong. The club includes a wide variety of musicians from singers to players of all kinds of musical instruments.

The purpose of the meetings is to improve the members' techniques and develop their poise. A few members perform at each meeting.

Every other week found juniors and seniors gathered together for the purpose of "developing and furthering" grease paint, lines, and in general, anything having to do with the stage. These students were the members of Mummers.

Members learned more about stage presence by participation in prepared skits.

Culmination of this study was the Mummers presentation of two one-act plays.

A "sophomore exclusive" at Lincoln High is the Clef Club, designed especially for those sophomores interested in music.

Each member is given at least one chance in the year to perform musically before his fellow music makers. This achieves two purposes, good entertainment for the listener and good experience for the performer.

As an added attraction outside artists are used to display their talents and find an interested audience in tomorrow's possible performers.

Another "for sophomores only" club is Mimes. Here assemble those whose interests pertain to the challenge of drama or in simpler words the presentation of the play.

The smell of grease paint is only as far as imagination can make it as the members learn the fundamentals of make-up.

Skits and plays are presented by these young actors to give them the necessary ease before an audience.

Costumes, settings, properties, and even play advertising occupy the time of this club as they learn about the land of the footlights.

Writers Produce Scribe

Give me a pen and I'll give you a writer—several of them, in fact, all members of the Writers Club.

Workshop meetings, where members read their manuscripts and receive criticism from the other members, were included in the club's agenda, along with speakers, who told of their own writing experiences.

Extemporaneous writing with a time limit is another source of bi-weekly enjoyment for these young "bards."

The main project of the club each year is to produce "The Scribe," a booklet filled with the original writings of Lincoln High students.

If the greatest piece of writing has not yet been accomplished, never fear, look to the Writers Club.

Checking more of the many stories, essays, and poems are Barbara Packard, managing editor, and Norma Reed, business manager.

Busy judging manuscripts for the Scribe contest are Ann Louise Eno, editor, and Wilma Wolfe, associate editor.

Art, Business Interest Students

For all girls interested in a career in the business world one place they can gain more information is the Business Club.

In their meetings the career girls of Lincoln High School discuss their chosen vocations.

The club plans activities to help the members develop the traits of good personality and social ease and many of their meetings were educational sessions with local business leaders as speakers.

A means of relaxation in a world such as ours when tensions keep mounting should be a part of any well-rounded life.

These two necessities, expression and relaxation, along with the companionship of people who are interested in the same things, are the purposes of the Art Club.

Besides workshop meetings the club also has occasional talks and discussions on different art techniques.

One can readily see why interest in the club runs high among its members.

Future Nurses, Scientists Meet

In order to get a better idea of nursing and its problems, late last year a Future Nurses Club was formed.

These girls listen to speakers, go on field trips and discuss the courses and curriculums they are going to study in accredited nurses training schools.

During this first year the group has made trips to Bryan Memorial Hospital, the Physical Therapy Department at Lincoln General Hospital, and attended the capping exercises at local hospitals.

Any student interested in any subject pertaining to the scientific world will enjoy the Science Club. Their greatest concern this year has been atomic energy and flying saucers, both of which were studied during their bi-weekly meetings.

During their meetings, they have student demonstrations in many phases of science and guest speakers. Their actual experiments help them to understand the principles they discuss.

Student Committees Assist

Reading and choosing new books for the school library from the wide variety of reading material available to the library is the main task of the Library Committee, sponsored by Miss Emma Snyder, librarian.

Planning the assemblies, introducing speakers, ushering parents and visitors at the honors convocations and decorating the stage for assemblies are just a few of the many duties of the Assembly Committee.

Mermaids Enjoy Water

Mere maids turned to mermaids when swimming came into the picture as the Aqualinks performed their underwater antics with grace and poise just as the legendary fish of the deep do.

At their weekly meetings the thirty-five members concentrated on their synchronized swimming and an under-water ballet. Performing with grace and skill, these girls practiced for their annual spring program, this year under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Roberts.

Started four years ago, this club mixes fun and relaxation with the art of skillful swimming.

Help Always Welcome

Service to all newcomers might be the slogan of the Senior Co-ed Counselors.

These senior girls give a tea just before school starts in the fall to acquaint the new students.

The counselors act as "big sisters" to the new girls, keeping in contact with them to see if they are adjusting to their new surroundings. The familiar puzzle of opening stubborn lockers is solved for many sophomores.

Building a new and definitely better organization was the purpose of the Safety Committee this year.

Timing fire drills, making sound announcements on the various phases of safety, making and putting up posters, setting up signs all over school, and in general, making Lincoln High safer, took up the time of this hardworking committee.

Peppers - - Many And Noisy

"These are the Links and we couldn't be prouder" was the theme "song" of the 1953-54 edition of Peppers.

This organization, which again was open to all senior girls added both noise and color to all sports events.

After changing the traditional uniform to black skirts and sweaters, with red emblems, this year's Peppers proceeded to make this year's group the best ever.

Working with the cheerleaders, the girls were present at all home football and basketball games. In addition many attended minor sports events and out-of-town games.

Besides actually cheering, the Peppers made posters and the horseshoe, sold decals, carnations, tickets for important games, and operated the concession stand at home football games.

The girls, 200 strong, gave proof that "the more sets of vocal cords the more noise produced."

Pep--The Keyword Here

Varsity lettermen in every sport automatically become members of the L Club. This organization has established a great tradition of athletic contribution and fine sportsmanship. It has labeled Lincoln High School a top prep school in all athletic events in the state.

Setting a good example of sportsmanship for the school, the members wear their letter sweaters on game days and had a very robust cheering section at the football games.

With the addition of five more girls and a few new cheers the Varsity Cheerleaders were "bigger and better than ever."

Leading the student body the eleven girls traveled to many out-of-town games, sparking the teams to victory.

This fall six junior girls were chosen on the basis of tryouts to be apprentice cheerleaders.

These girls lead the cheering at reserve basketball games and will become Varsity cheerleaders in their senior year.

Apprentice Cheerleaders Jeanine Garner, Judy Chapman, Marilyn Brungardt, Jeanette Turner, Shirley Hopkins, and Alice Knudson inspired the Reserve Basketball team to win all their games.

Admiring one of the many posters put up by the Peppers this year are Mary Welsh, Carol Lohrberg, and Jane Hoover.

Bus trips to out-of-town games are one of the many pleasures of being a high school student.

Cheer, Cheer For L. H. S.

Leading the Peppers and student body in cheering at basketball games were eleven cheerleaders, five of whom are shown here in action.

16	Omaha Tech	13
0	Grand Island	40

Rapidly gaining experience under fire, the 1953 edition of the Red and Black grid machine finished the season with a six win, three loss record, the city championship and a ranking among the top five teams in the state.

This record was nothing short of sensational for a team that started the season with only two returning lettermen from last year's team.

Individual honors went to Roger Krhounek and Bob Fisher, who were awarded second and third team berths respectively in the Lincoln Journal's All State Team. Packy Young, Marty Perez, and Norman Ford also received recognition.

The "green" Links lost the opening game in a 14-13 thriller to Omaha Central. This victory was especially sweet for Central, a school that last defeated Lincoln High in 1923.

A highly regarded North Platte team, renewing their series with Lincoln after a 15-year lapse, roared to an early 13-0 lead. It was in this game that the Links initiated their famous comeback. After the smoke cleared on this free scoring fracas, the final score read Lincoln 30, visitors 27.

Undermanned Beatrice fell to the knife of the Red and Black horde as the Links ran and passed their way to a 52-0 romp over the invading Orangemen.

After the annual city classic with Northeast, no one could call the Links "green" any more. Lincoln ran over the Rockets in every phase of the game to come up with an 18-0 victory. The team displayed an outstanding defense and the running of an array of fleet backs, sparked by Roger Krhounek, gained 106 yards and led the Links to their eleventh city championship in thirteen years.

In a 27-7 win over Omaha North, the Links showed that they weren't going to be held down. The Purple and Gold wall was split wide open as the Lincoln men plowed through for a total gain of 265 yards.

The Links fell to the Scottsbluff Bearcats for their second loss of the season. The Links line sparkled in the crisp game, holding the Red and White to a 14-6 score.

Jack Curtis and Larry Pickering were outstanding in the Red and Black's 13-7 win over the Red and White contenders of Omaha South. An Omaha fumble in the first quarter provided a setup for the first Lincoln TD.

In a close game with rugged Omaha Tech, Lincoln High pulled out ahead to win the 1953 Homecoming game 16-13. Outside of a punt by Jack Folmer which resulted in a safety, Marty Perez was the lone scorer against the Maroon and White team.

After last year's defeat, Grand Island came back to belt the Links with a 40-0 smashing. Some 4,000 fans watched as the Purple and Gold Islanders crushed the Links on a cold and snowing night for the wind-up of the season.

The Reserve Football Team, under the tutelage of Lyle Weyand and Bill Jensen, came up with another fine year, winning three games while losing only one.

They defeated Boys Town twice, 40-0 and 28-0. Grand Island fought hard but was defeated 7-6. The Junior Links suffered their only defeat at the hands of Omaha Tech by a score of 13-0.

The team was led by three hard running backs, Ronnie Galois, David Hann and Jerry Perry. Perry also broke up the opponents' defense with fine left-handed passes. Andris Matisons did a commendable job of kicking extra points, according to the coaches.

Winning two games and tying a third, the Sophomore Football Team, coached by Buford Grosscup and Phil Sprague, finished their 1953 season. In the opening game, with all sophomores out for football playing, they traveled to Humboldt and returned victorious by a score of 19-7. Their second game with the Beatrice Reserves ended in a scoreless tie. In their final encounter they defeated the Boys Town Freshmen 7-0.

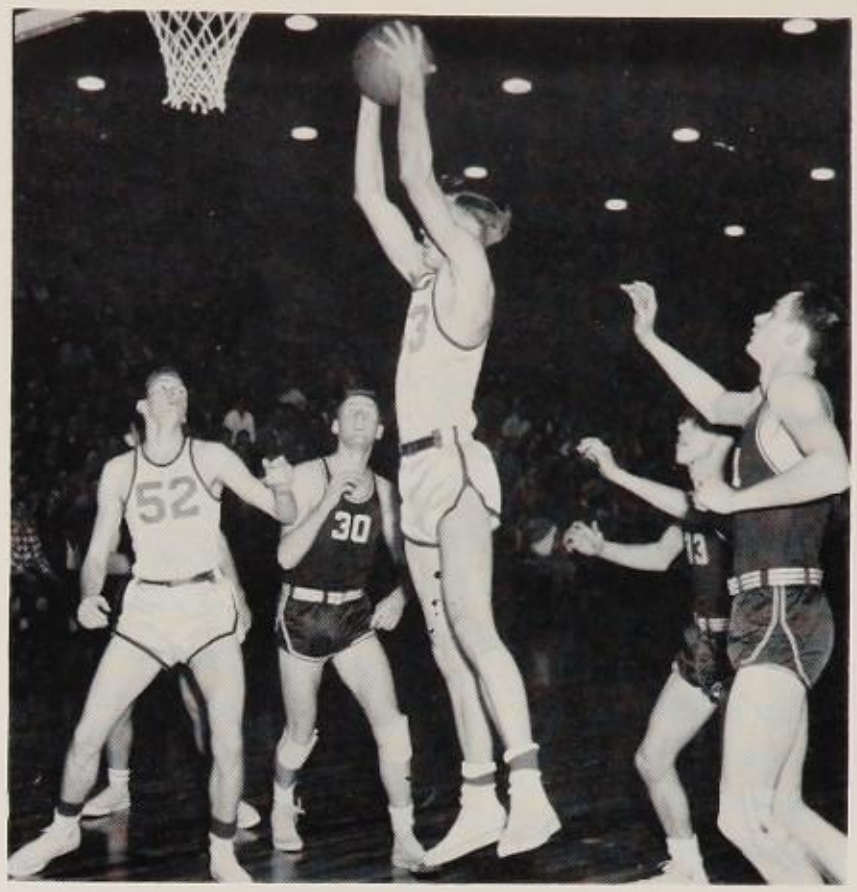
Bluffs Opener

The Links will open the season against Scottsbluff on the Northeast High gym. The Bearcats return to the Lincoln schedule after a one year absence. Scottsbluff was one of the top teams in the state last year, losing out in the first round of the state tournament to State Champion Boys Town. The Bearcats, always tough, will undoubtedly provide a stern test for the Links.

Fremont will play host to the Links the following night and will attempt to make up for the 50-33 loss at the hands of Lincoln in last year's season

Care of the uniforms is only a part of a basketball manager's job, as Jerry Brownfield well knows.



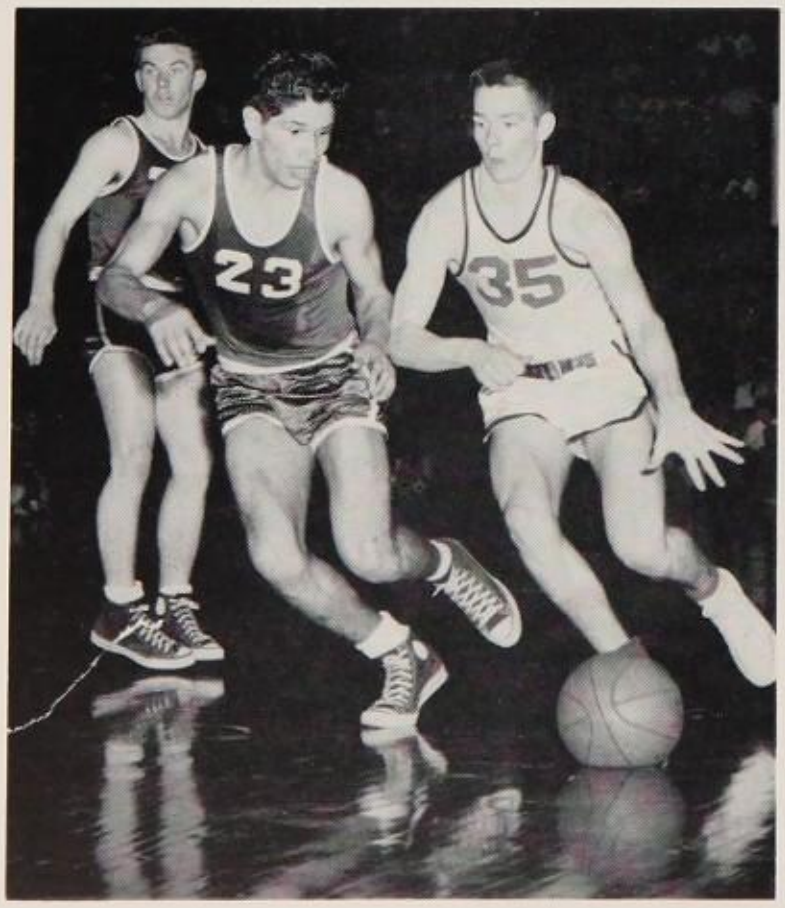
Bud Hollibaugh tries for another basket as Allen Lewis watches intently, in the Omaha South game.

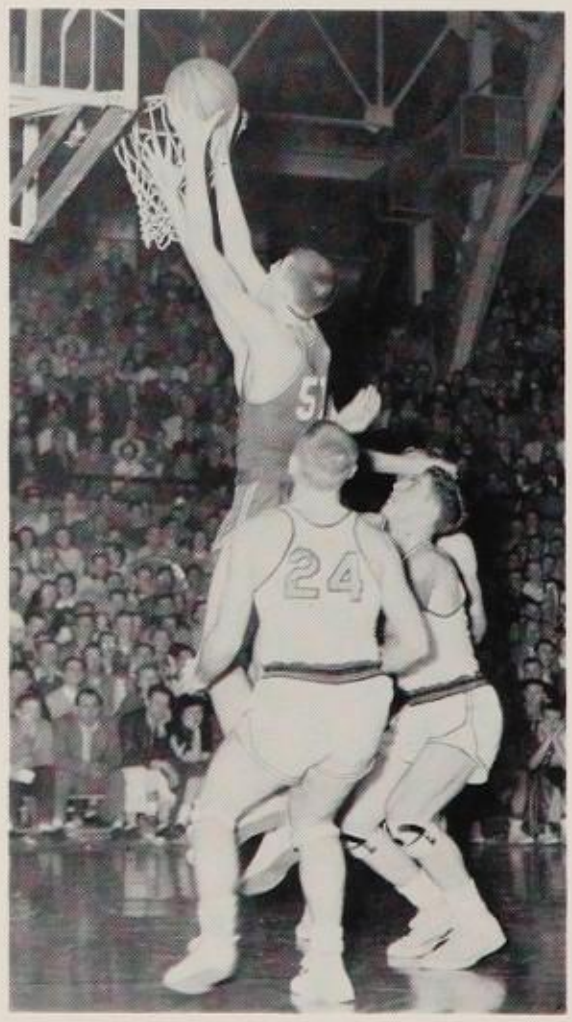
Cagers Rated Second In State

The 1954 cagers finished one of the most successful basketball seasons in recent history, with a 16 win-3 loss record, the city and district titles, and rated second, right behind State Champion Hastings in the final ratings.

The Weyandmen played their initial game in the Northeast Gym. They showed promise of great things to come in breezing over Scottsbluff, 46-22. The following evening at Fremont, the Tigers were bested, 47-41.

Dribbling down the court is Bob Lee as Boys Town tries to stop the team in the State Tournament.





About to make another two points is Allen Graves in the game against Hastings at the State Tournament.

RESERVE BASKETBALL: Standing: Srb, Jacobs, Smith, Newbill, Taber, Bjorkland, Hergenrader, Littrell, Sell. Kneeling: Lamphere, Perry.

Norfolk received an unwelcome reception at the hands of the Links as they were smashed, 73-18.

Grand Island fought tooth and nail and won, 64-63, on their own maples. The bucketeers started winning again the next night at Kearney's expense by a 70-54 margin.

The tall Links next handed Fairbury a 51-38 loss. On January 8, the underdog Links traveled to Omaha to nose out a top-rated Tech team by a 56-53 margin.

The Links regained the city championship by drubbing Northeast, 68-40, as Al Graves set a new scoring record of 32 points.

The Weyandmen celebrated their opening game in the new Wesleyan gym by trouncing the Omaha Central five, 73-42. Graves and Lee ran wild against the Little Maroons from Sioux City Central. The final score read 71-55.

McCook put up a good scrap but the Links had no trouble in taking a 64-48 victory as Graves led the scoring parade with 24. North Platte provided rugged opposition but Lincoln rose to the occasion to eke out a 51-50 decision.

After trailing for three quarters, the Links rallied in the last quarter to nose out Hastings, 67-65. The hoopsters tuned up for the district tournament by drubbing Omaha South, 60-36 in the Packer gym.

The Red and Black cage machine opened its play in the district tourney at Wesleyan by administering a 60-38 lesson to the Fairbury Jeffs. The Links broke an old jinx in the finals, edging Northeast, 47-44, to become the first quintet in history to gain both the city and district crowns.

In the state meet the cagers broke another jinx as they defeated Boys Town for the first time in the history of the two schools, 65-40, and Allan Graves' 40 points set a new class A scoring record, equalling the output of the entire Cowboy crew.

Hastings got revenge on the Links in the semi-finals. The Tigers dumped in a barrage of points in the last three minutes to drop the Links, 61-52. Hastings went on in the finals to whip Omaha Benson for the State Championship.

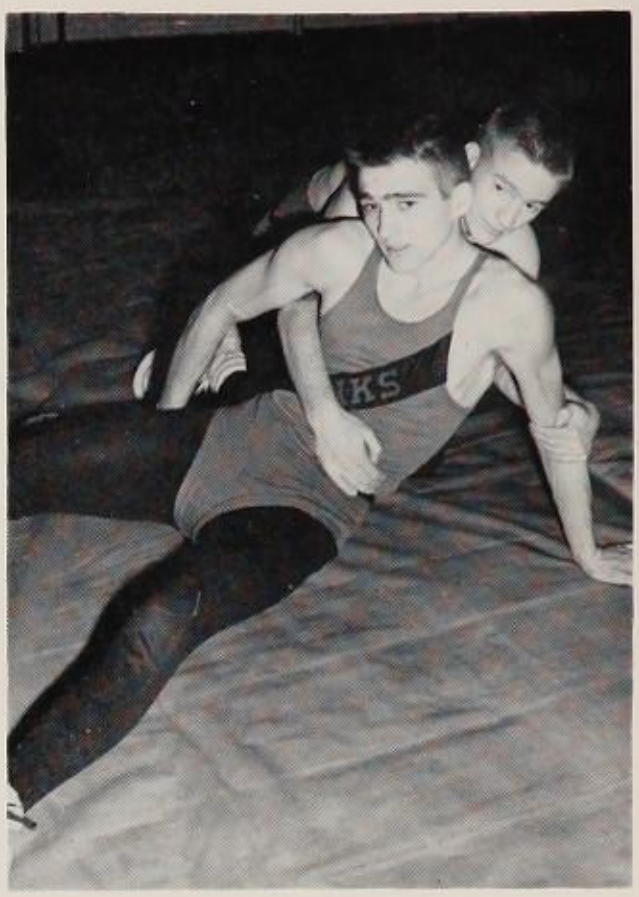
Boys Gain Experience

For the third year the Links grapplers have had a different coach. This year the grunt and groaners were manned by Dave Mackie from the University of Nebraska. Only six of the boys were seniors, the rest being underclassmen who have gained a lot of valuable experience for use in the next year or two.

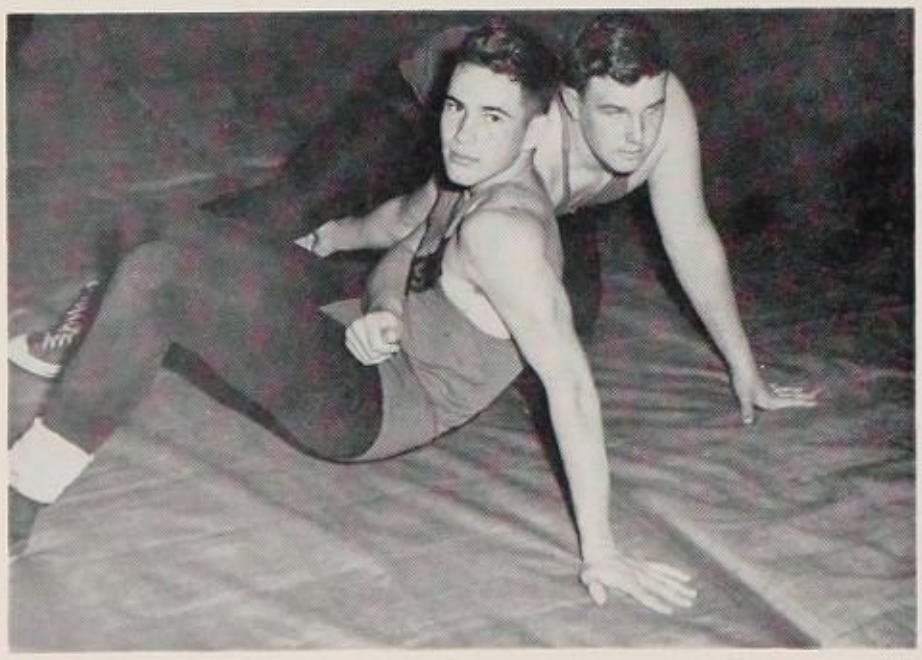
The seniors were Jerry Miller, heavyweight; Bob Hitz, 138; Dick Deems, 145; Phip Stephens, 127; Lanny Peterson, 133; Don Wilson, 155.



Practicing a "sit-out" hold are wrestlers, Phip Stephens and Lanny Peterson.

During the season the boys met Lincoln Teachers, Omaha Tech, Omaha Central, Omaha North, Boys Town, Fremont, Abe Lincoln of Council Bluffs, and participated in the state meet.

It will be a miracle if Jerry Miller (behind) doesn't fall asleep before he or Mark Reimers is pinned.



Grappling on the mat are Don Wilson (top) and Bob Hitz, who, from the look they are giving the camera, apparently think they are on T.V. John Reed, however, has his mind on his work and gives Hitz the count.

GYMNASTICS TEAM: Row 1: Heffelfinger, Ridgley, Turley, Cavett, Dailey. Row 2: Johnson, Chisholm, Neeman, Densberger, Minford, Celtjen.

Gymnasts Win Again

Paced by Everett Dailey, who took second as individual performer in the optional division, Coach Phil Sprague's gymnastics team once again brought home to L.H.S. the State Championship in both the novice and optional divisions.

The optional crown was won over Hastings, 4,347 to 4,044, for the second championship rating for the Links in a row. The novice class was over Beatrice, 4,736 to 4,537, for the third straight win.

First places taken in the State Meet were by Don Minford, Lowell Johnson, Everett Dailey and Jim Heffelfinger in the optional class and by Bob Atkins and James Wertz in the novice division.

"Flying through the air with the greatest of ease" is Everett Dailey.

Almost seeming to stand on his head in mid-air is Lowell Johnsen, as George Chisholm and Dick Densberger watch.

Adding their talents to the team were Cliff Hardesty, Jack Curtiss, Yogi Hergenrader, Gary Smith, and Packy Young.

Pitchers on this year's team were Bill Bergstraesser, Denny Curtin, Dick Hergenrader, Roger Krhounek, and Tom Craig.

Baseball Returns To Scene

With the coming of spring, baseball returned to the scene at Lincoln High. Many returning lettermen and new faces reported to Coach Bill Jensen for practice. A difficult weeding-out process began to trim the team to 17.

The Links line-up changed continuously, due to the battles for position. The strong diamond team, led by five fine moundsmen, played a schedule of ten games, meeting the top teams in the state before entering the State Meet the last of May.

Coach Buford Grosscup again organized a large reserve squad to provide next year's varsity team with added talent. The Reserves played a larger schedule than in previous years and gained valuable experience.

Valuable men on the team were Eldon Hatcliff, Rowan Belknap, Larry Littrell, Ron Bayless, and Jim Maul.

RESERVE BASEBALL: Row 1: Tichota, K, Anderson, B. Schriner, Filbert, Spadt, J. Mendoza, R. Smith, Stauning, Hilt, D. Youngscap. Row 2: Gibson, Bosoco, P. Richardson, R. Graham, R. Brown, B. Stevens, La Page, Shelhan, Kellog, B. Gibson, Figle, K. Bacon, Wrobliski. Row 3: P. Young, E. Haynes, R. Borland, Botts, D. Simmons, Duffek, Stone, E. Champoux, N. Sincebaugh, Schwindt, Gies, J. Russell, E. Dodson, J. Summers.

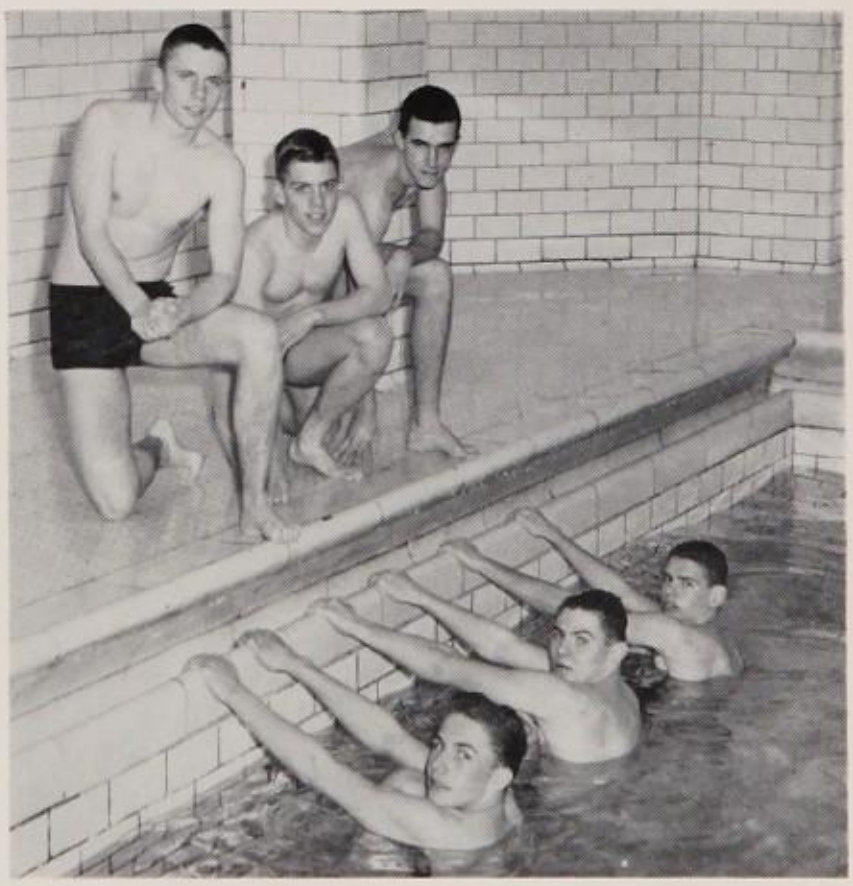
Swimmers Second In State

The Lincoln High swimming team climaxed a successful season by snatching second place laurels in the state meet with a thrilling comeback. Sacrificing individual honors for the strength in the relays, the tankers, with a first in the medley relay and a second in the 200 yard free style relay, garnered enough points to nose out Hastings and Omaha Tech for second place.

During the regular season, the mermen took triple victories from both Hastings and Omaha Tech and splashed their way to victory over Northeast and Sioux City. Their only defeats were at the hands of the state champs, Boys Town, and a strong Roosevelt High School team from Des Moines, Ia.

Altogether it was a very successful season for the mermen of Lincoln High.

Watching Carl Bodensteiner practicing his start are Crocker, North, Deahn, Teal, Junge, and Holloway.



Breast-strokers Usher, Thomas, and Fisher watch the back-strokers Rook, Thorpe, and Schorr begin a time trial.

Track--Spring Athletes At Work

With seven returning lettermen and many talented hopefuls, the Lincoln High track season opened with the annual inter-class meet.

Harold Scott took over the duties of head coach with Bill Pfeiff concentrating on the weightmen. The season opened April 8 at the North Platte invitational track meet, at which the tracksters showed great promise. The next meet pitted the Links against Beatrice.

After a week of spring vacation and practice, the track team journeyed to Sioux City Central for a meet. The Links also met Boys Town at the Oval. The next meet was the Public Schools meet at Wesleyan.

The track team competed in the District tournament during the first week in May, and the State meet on May 14-15. They ended the season by traveling to Grand Island and the G.I. Relays on May 19.

Concentrating on the hurdles is Bob Lamphere.

Distance men on the 1954 track team are Dick Bond, Ben Gadd, Frank Shelledy, Ed Temmers, and Gregg De Witt.

Shown perfecting their serves are Jack Clark and Art Weaver.

Spring Brings Golf, Tennis

With the approach of spring, the Lincoln High tennis team, coached by Harry Kuklin, took their rackets out of storage and began practice for the coming season. Led by two returning lettermen, the netters rounded into shape and opened their season with a 13-3 victory at North Platte. Following spring vacation and a week of practice, the netters played an ample schedule before the all important climax in May, the state meet at Lincoln.

The experienced golfers opened their season with an easy victory at the North Platte Invitation. After a week of practice, they played Sioux City Central at Sioux City. A match with Fremont followed. Next, the swingers traveled to Grand Island to defend their state sand greens title. A return engagement with a strong Fremont team was next. The Linksmen took part in the state grass greens tournament on May 14-15 in Lincoln, in a new location for the state meet. The last round of competition was played at Grand Island.

ous athletic activities offered by the club.

Touch football kicks off the after-school sports season which gives way to swimming, both recreational and lifesaving.

Horseback riding is a popular sport in both spring and fall.

As usual, baseball attracted a large turnout this year, while strikes were also registered in the bowling alleys.

In addition to the sports previously mentioned, the club also provides girls with the opportunity to take up golf, hiking, basketball, tap dancing, volleyball, and table-tennis.

Dear Jerry,
You've been a wonderful
Biology partner, helping me with opens & daily work!
Now that you're out of school, I hope you have all the luck & opportunities you want
Good luck!!!
Love,
Rosemary

Jerry,
I'll never
